Turn #48
Industrial Stage Zero: The Medieval Era
1340 Anno Domini

Next Turn's Orders Due: Friday, 9 September 1994

ANNOUNCEMENTS

I'M BACK! There is nothing you can do about that. It was a good vacation and all games are now properly aligned. Let's get this train moving again.

$13 Rulebooks: Thank you for sending $13 checks to Thomas Harlan. Those of you who send $10 to Thomas to get the new Rulebook will have their checks returned. The exception to this are those of you who can pick it up locally at Thomas's house in Tucson.

Guard Units: Guard Units cost 2 NFP and 10 GP initially and then, must be invested in for its level to be increased. They can move by themselves at the leader's rate but cannot lead armies. They can perform some Intel operations (depending on their level), especially Counter Assassination and many leader/army operation. They cannot Diplomacize regions. This rule is effective in all Plate Games.

Agro Cash In Rule: Those of you who have incomes 50 GP or less can cash in 1 excess AGRO for 1 GP or 2 AGROs for 1 NFP. With incomes between 100 to 50 GP, 2 AGROs can buy 1 GP and 4 AGROs make 1 NFP. Above 100 GP you can only use AGRO to defray the NFP cost of building Megaliths or maintaining them at a rate of 5 AGRO for each NFP. This rule is effective in all Plate Games.

LORDS 10 UNIT CONVERSION

Each point of cavalry and infantry (light or heavy) represents 500 fighting men. A transport or warship point = 5 ships with 100 men aboard. A siege point = 5 siege towers or 50 catapults or 500 sappers. A war elephant point = 50 elephants ridden by mahouts. A field fort point = 5 forts manned by 100 men each. A wall point = 10 feet of wall ramparts. The guard unit = a thousand of your empire's toughest, most gnarly warriors.

THE AKA MURRID EMIRATE OF FULANI

Maleek, Emir of the Fulani

DIPLOMACY: Mandara(n), Galam(c)

Maleek mustered 18,000 young men for his own personal guard while the war against Togo continued. But the sleeping lion had awoken and came back at the Fulani with a vengeance. Ife, Nupe, Hausa and Kebbi were overrun. The Togo horde now sits at the gates of Gao, preparing for a siege. Ghana, Kanuri, Kham, Senegal, Zarma and Adwaghost rebelled. A former lieutenant, Mohammad of Ruatu, has joined Adwaghost as an advisor. Boure, Galam, Takrur and Gambia are now isolated from the rest of the Emirate. The old Prince Crecurum is keeping them in line these days. On the other side, Zaria, Gwari, Daza and Bornu are only accessible by an oasis route through the Sahara Desert. Trade with Andalusia was interrupted.

THE NIGER BASIN WAR

Togo vs Fulani

Caught by surprise with the sudden Fulani attack on Ife, the Togo elders conferred. As would be expected the war party prevailed. The Oba-king Kutoba stopped by every hut handing out spears and shields. He had finally called on his waiting man power to build a humongous army. When all had gathered, King Kutoba, Captain Gumbani and Colonel Kuta counted their troops, there were 95,000 men ready for war. 25,000 of them were heavily armored with ivory and wood. On the way to Ife they were joined by 1000 Asante machete men, 1000 Mossi archers and 2000 non-tribal warriors who life it was to fight battles. In June of 1336, this Togo caught 32,000 mixed equipped Fulani infantry, trying to invade Yoruba. The Fulani leader was Argabak who hung the fingers of his would be Togo killed around his neck. Argabak was outclassed by three to one. Not a single Fulani warrior was left to resist the Togo march. During the rest of the summer, Ife was liberated - returning to friendly Togo control.

In the following spring the Mossi detached, taking 10,000 additional men into their tribe. The Togo caught another Fulani force, crossing the Niger, attempting to invade Oyo. The 11,000 Muslims were pulverized to jelly under the feet and spear butts of 81,000 Afro-Pagans. The Fulani leader, Simtah, was captured by a mop-up patrol. He immediately repudiated Islam and offered his services to the Togo king in exchange for his life. Under advisement from Colonel Kuta, Kutoba agreed to spare him. There may be use for this wight.

Nupe quickly paid tribute to the great mob of Togonada, who had crossed the river in the fall, rather than face an ugly ravage. During the winter months, Gumbani and the Asante split off and raided Daza and Kanuri. In the summer of 1338, Kutoba and Kuta and their forces invaded Hausa, exacting tribute. Simtah earned his keep by tricking the Katsina guards to open the gates, saving Kutoba some time. Rejoined by the Asante and Gumbani armies, the Togo forced tribute from Kebbi in 1339.

Meanwhile, the exhausted Mossi men braved the unpopulated jungles of Tusyam to attack the garrison in Niani. After the initial attack, the inhabitants joined up with the Mossi tribe and overthrew their Sunni Muslim masters. Niani reverted to Afro-pagan. The Mossi then attempted to raise Cain in Ghana and Segou but were unsuccessful. They ducked in the uninhabited forest of Garou. They rejoined the main army in 1340.

Maleek stood with his 31,500 knights, 21,000 soldiers and 250 catapults in Songhai. He listened to the war reports - it was all bad news. If he cannot stop the barbarians in Songhai, he might as well roll over and die. They came after the first planting in 1340, still 80,000 strong, confident as all goons could be. And they fought like devils. Maleek was not a good coach. His home team took 29,500 injuries before the Gaou had enough sense to retreat into Gao's 50 foot wooden palisades. The Togo had suffered only 11,500 losses and were reinforced by 7500 Mossi. They wanted to passive siege but this could not be accomplished without warships. Songhai was held by the Togonads against the city. Simtah could not find a passage inside for the Fulani were now wise to his treason. Both sides waited for the final act of the conflict.

THE SUPREMACY OF TOGO

Kutoba

DIPLOMACY: Asante(nt), Nupe(t), Niani(t)

Young king Kutoba and his pale really showed the Fulani. The Asante chief died in the battle of Songhai and his nation has become non-paying tributary. Simtah's bureaucratic staff escaped from Gao to become part of Togo's growing government.

THE BANTU KINGS OF KONGO

Akashua, King of Ba-Congo

DIPLOMACY: Benin(a), Yaounde(nt), Nyuzu(c), Mitumba(nt), Sangbe(nt), Bendundu(nt), Likasi(nt), Mankim(c)

The Congo folk expanded Port Kachunk and Nyembo and built some public works. Akashua looked to the inland jungles for expansion. Zwellhini who had himself 'fought' the Fulani died in 1340.

East Africa

Merca: 10mi, 10mw

THE GREAT ZIMBABWEFive Twin Jackal, Immortal Ancestor of the Zimbabwe
Crane Feller, Chief Zimbabwe Royal

DIPLOMACY: none

The Zimbabwe were very sedentary. Five Twin Jackal is now 187 years old.

THE BASOKO

Mamileke

DIPLOMACY: Kimbu(nt), Mogadishu(a), Lamu(nt), Gamo-Gofa(nt)

The Basoko recovered (again) their lost territories. Trade overland with Abyssinia was secured.

THE ZAGWE KINGDOM OF AETHIOPIAAnsesto, Ras Jemo, King of Aethiopia

DIPLOMACY: Atbara(f), Kordofan(f)

Honoring the new alliance with their Kordofan allies, two cities were founded. Ganeti, a Nilotic port in Kordofan. Artoli in Atbara with docks toward the Nile. Dunqunab and Tobruk expanded.

EUROPEWestern Europe

Merca: 10mhc, 10mc, 10mhi, 10mi

THE AR ROCH SULTANATE OF YESIAr Rod Abu'l Hashim, Governor of the Vermin Insects

DIPLOMACY: Al Hauts(t), Yemen(f)

For a nominal fee, the Chalukya were sold the technological secrets of medicine. A royal road was built connecting Oujda to Fez. Another road connected Madiera to Granada in Spain. Palma and Beni Suwayf expanded. Bunki found a saucy wench in Barcelona and sent a resignation letter to his father, so that he could shack up with her.

THE NORMAN KINGDOM OF SAXONIAEdward III, King of the Saxons and of the Normans, Count of Blois

DIPLOMACY: none

Amid fanfare and cheering in London, King Edward III announced that he'll take full control of his kingdom. The regent, Richard de Stopol, bitterly opposed the ascension and he took the command of the army in Normandy. The villain gained control of Normandy, Brittany, Maine, France, Ponthieu, Flanders, Vermandois, Lorraine, Anjou, Poitou and Connaught. The King's supporters in London ensured that Strathclyde, Lothian, Northumbria, Anglia, Murcia, Weesex, Sussex, Cornwall and Dyfed remained in Saxon hands. In the south of Gallia, the loyal count Duvier made sure of the loyalty of Orleans, Lyonnaise, Aquitaine, Gascony, Armagnac, Languedoc, Asturias, Castille, Aragon and Catalonia. Most the government remained in the hands of King Edward in London but the blackguard was split. Auvergne, Gwynned, Highlands, Lancaster, Lienster, Munster and Ulster took advantage of the rift and became independent duchies. The trade station of New South Wales was isolated and could no longer handle merchant traffic. Trade was cut off from Islam and Chalukya. The land route to Thery was closed by the Neustrians. The remaining trade routes became more difficult to manage. It now took an additional two sea zones for Mediterranean goods to be transported toward London.

THE NORMAN KINGDOM OF NEUSTRIARichard, King of Neustria and of the Normans

DIPLOMACY: Normandy(h)

With a crown on his head, Richard de Stopol felt real important. He reiterated his previous policy that no new papal monasteries shall be built in his territory.

THE ALMONDED EMIRATE OF ANDALUSIAMarwan II, Emir of Sevilla

DIPLOMACY: Timiris(ta)

The Almonds preserved their grain but no Saxon ships arrived to pick up the food barrels. It seems they had their own problems.

Italy

Merca: 10mhi, 10mi, 5mw

THE KINGDOM OF LIGURIAReginald, King of Liguria

DIPLOMACY: none

Reginald joined the cows and ate some grass. Some thieves stole a portion of the treasury.

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCHBoniface VIII, Bishop of Rome, Vicar of Christ, Servant of the Servants of God Supreme Pontiff on the Universal Church

DIPLOMACY: none

The continuing Polish coddling of Wulharrik the Butcher grated against the Papal See. In response to this, the holy pontiff issued the papal bull, 'Pro Gloria', depriving Poland participation of the Educational Trust Fund so long as Wulharrik remains free, denying absolution to any person who consorts, supports anyone who has been excommunicated, and condemning secret societies.

Without a Cathedral in Paris and with the ban of King Richard, the Vatican moved most of the University to the Cathedral of Lyon (a possession of King Edward), founding the University of the Sorbonne. In Rome, the Vatican library has been redubbed the University of Saint John.

THE PRINCIPALITY OF SPOLETOGiuliano, Prince of Spoleto, Defender of the Faith

DIPLOMACY: Bari(f)

The Spoleti were busy with their own affairs.

Eastern Europe

Merca: 30mc, 10mi

THE NORSE KINGDOM OF CHAERYElbert, King of the Danes

DIPLOMACY: none

Duke Sven Bejtir with some 570 ships transported 34,500 warriors to Hordaland. With the help of the Hammer of Tor, landing was achieved and Hordaland was occupied. With the Craven Hordel beaten, Romsdal and Trondheim were likewise pacified. The Craven nuisance has been put down for at least another generation. At least for now, the remaining Hordel regions: Opland and Trondelag, became neutral. Captain Leman had been lost in the North Atlantic.

THE KINGDOM OF FRANCAEkhart II, Panarch of Franca

DIPLOMACY: none

King Ekhart went 'road crazy' again building 'Reisbahnen' from Munchen in Bavaria to the new port city Sancelade in Swabia, then to the new port city Murko in Franconia then turning east through Thuringia to link with Hamelin in Meissen. Celebrating the glorified event, all the workers and new scholars were given bratwurst and beer, enough to pass out with.

THE GRAND PRINCIPALITY OF WARSAWVolazam IV, Grand Prince of Warsaw

DIPLOMACY: none

Having gotten the cold shoulder treatment from the priesthood, Prince Volazam kicked them out of his palace so that he could pray in peace. Wulharrik complained that his status quo as national hero was hollow. He remained in Moldavia, far away from Warsaw, and is treated like a leper or a demon by everyone he meets, including Volazam's couriers.

THE PRINCIPALITY OF NOVGORODBoris II, Prince of Novgorod

DIPLOMACY: Muscovy(nt)

In Smolensk, inland from the river, Minsk was founded. It was Novgorod's 5th city. The princelet Valerius found a wife in Muscovy, a region that has long forgotten the violence done to it in past times. The heathen Kurak wouldn't hear Iosip's ideas. General Feoldor died in 1340.

THE JEWISH STATE OF THE VOLGASalomon, Emir of Great Bolgar

DIPLOMACY: none

The new Jews remained fixed in their homeland, frozen with fear with the fear of horde activity.

ASIAThe Middle East

Merca: 10mhc, 10mc, 10mhi, 10mi, 5ms

THE NIKEPHORIAN EMPIRE OF BYZANTIONNicephorus X, Eastern Roman Emperor, Basileus of Constantinople

DIPLOMACY: Kiev(f)

"Mirror, mirror, on the wall, who's the meanest, richest, toughest, most deadly emperor of them all?"

"Why you are you pretty thing."

Nicephorus smiled broadly because he like it when his reflection told him lies. But this time the lie was a truth. Sailors from Corfu reported a civil war in the Varangian Saxonia Empire. Many cities were fortified, with the dire news of nomadic migration looming. The city of Kiev became an integral part of the Byzantine Empire. Polish influence and all.

THE DAR AL ISLAM - ARBILIQ CALIPHATE

As Sa'id, Kalifat Rasul Allah, Commander of the Faithful
DIPLOMACY: Taman(c), Fars(f), Berbera(hs)

The Caliph extended his glorious road network along the north shore of the Persian Gulf from Khuzestan to the new city in Mand, Siraf. The last ambassador was curious about what had happened to this Black Tower Thing. Siffia, Homs and Najaf each expanded in size. The Tigris river delta area was heavily invested with almond butter and gilded pistachio shells. Old man Is'mail really angered the non-submissive Berberans. He had to escape their infamous eating man trap.

THE SHAHDOM OF PARTHIA

Arsoes III, Shah of Parthia, Emir of Merv, Archon of Bactria
DIPLOMACY: Kuldja(nt), Makran(fa), Yezd(n), Khvor(hs)

The Parthians cut trade with the Bolgars who had rejected Islam so rudely. Three cities expanded Bukhara, Timova and Babol Sar. The whole nation was put on horse alert, worrying more about the Mongol than their smaller closer but still deadly cousins the Alanni. For it was the Alanni who burst over the mountain walls to raid Ferghana while Cornholis watched. But neither horde seemed interested in the riches of Persia. So Commander Funjaz was free to conquer the deadbeat Kyzl-Kum nomads with 20,000 troopers. Prince Xerxestri had trouble making deals in Yezd and Khvor.

THE GHORID SULTANATE OF AFGHANISTAN

Omar, Sultan of Afghans
DIPLOMACY: none

The Afghans watched helplessly as two mighty horde trampled through their territory, eating all the grass, kicking up dirt and spoiling gardens. The uncountable Mongols were courteous enough not to attack anything on their way through Kashmir (from Yarkhand) and Pathan. But the Alanni were twice as rude, raiding Ferghana after jumping over the wall. They then ducked through Yarkhand to follow the Mongol path, raiding Pathan on their way out. Omar would love to ticket the two hordes with fines but then he would be trampled upon if he confronted them. At least they didn't sack his capital and looted his substantial treasury.

THE MONGOLOID INVASION OF INDIA

Mongols, Alanni vs. anyone unfortunate to dwell in India

The Mongols, 645,500 cavalry of pure energy and the Alanni, only 278,500 riders made a secret compact to strike India between the years of 1337-1339. The Mongols arrived first, entering Jhelum in May of 1338. The Harayuk were unconquered about this for they had long been confident of their martial prowess. However, the 3000 soldiers who ruled the region feared for their lives and abandoned the region. The Mongols then headed south trampling Multan, to Sukkur. In Sukkur, the Mongol Khan, Temujin was assassinated. The Mongols fell into disarray and lacked the needed cash to support themselves. Sukkur was looted and Jats was raided. A new chief Holakshi, beat his fellow contenders and became the new Khan.

The Alanni showed up in Jhelum in 1340. They raided it as they had raided Ghorid territory. The smaller horde then entered Punjab and chased the garrison away.

THE ALANNICHARG HOST

Subatoi, Khajan of the Alans
DIPLOMACY: Tuttorik Horde(a)

Subatoi mourned the loss of his friend Temujin. The Alanni have decided to rest in Punjab for the winter, preparing to loot the region the following spring.

THE MONGOL KHANATE

Holakshi Khan
DIPLOMACY: none

The assassin who killed Temujin came from Chalukya. Holakshi swore revenge as soon as he can find the dough to pay off the entire horde.

THE HARAYUK RAJPUT EMPIRE

Beljanapala, Khan of Khans, Master of Kaurnaj
DIPLOMACY: no effect

Kohanpuram expanded so that trade can expand with the Orient. Maghada developed greatly to facilitate more farming. All the hordes in the area have made it difficult to manage territory. Jats, Jhelum and Sukkur have been lost. Lack of monsoon rain caused a famine along the Ganges River.

THE CHALUKYA MANDALAM

Dantidurga II, The Great Muta
DIPLOMACY: Mahwa(c)

Much cash was spent upgrading the Mandalam to a higher technology. Water wheels and windmills were more common. People started wearing shoes and stirrups were attached to saddles. Dantidurga was wise to the horde attack and rose lots of cavalry to counter them. Time was bought when an assassin killed the Mongol chief in Sukkur. Alchemists in the bakery have devised a new concoction, the pepperoni. It was laced with poisons designed to kill whoever ate it. Sadly much of the nation's crops were far under expectations. Without the food to feed the masses, people started dying. Tripuri, Kolyani, Goa, The Golden Portals of the Serpent Queen, Surat, Banavasi, Polonarva, Gobiguk and Nils each lost population.

THE RASTRAKUTA EMPIRE

Sinuma, Emperor of Manyakheta
DIPLOMACY: Bhutan(f), Sikkim(fa)

Facing the Gulf of Mannar was built Farajore in Sri Lanka. Chanda's short reign ended in 1340. Sinuma was elevated to the top job. Like his predecessor, he was caught in Bhutan.

South-East Asia

Merca: 5mwe, 5mc, 10mhi, 20mi, 10mw

THE KINGDOM OF PAGAN

Krawrahta, King of Pagan, Maharaja Myanmar
DIPLOMACY: Thaton(f), Kachin(n)

Pendash and Mangfu increased in population (8 GPV and 5 GPV, respective). The merchant marine expanded exponentially. Most of the new ships had empty or half-empty holds trading with Java and Chekiang. Lamkang botched his diplomacy with the wilderness pagans of Kachin.

THE AQUARIUM OF JAVA

Halibutimsutra, King of the Spice Islands
DIPLOMACY: Mindanao(nt), Palawan(a)

Halibut retired his uncle Pikimsutra and accepted the full responsibilities of a king. Waves Chief Runan arranged an alliance with the Daimyo of Palawan. The Palawan possessed 5 warships whom had escaped the Chekiang destruction of the Amago fleet a decade or so ago, and now serve the Daimyo as privateers.

China

Merca: 5mhc, 5mc, 10meh, 10mej, 10mew

THE DAI VIET GUO

Pang Vanvoa, Wang Dai Viet

DIPLOMACY: Kweichou(a), Kwangta(c), Miao-Ling(c), Fraikuk(f)

Both gateway cities, Taii and Shau Tachi expanded to 7 gold levels each. Vandem trained more troops and died of influenza. Vanvoa who has three bickering wives is the new master.

THE HIDDEN DRAGON OF CHEKIANG

Quan Ciadol, Celestial King of Chekiang
DIPLOMACY: Yen(nt)

The Chekiang forces, reinforced by 45,000 more cavalry moved from Bao Ding to Houma ready to stop the Mongols at the Great Wall if they dare zigzag toward China. Reports from the steppe indicated that the Mongols had left. Indeed for the first time since the taming of horses, the northern prairie has been left void of any roaming nomads.

THE CIAO CHINESE KINGDOM

Geizer
DIPLOMACY: none

The Ciao mass conscripted and emptied their force pool to double the size of their cavalry patrol. These joined with the imperial Chekiang army and braced for the expected attack. It did come from an unexpected quarter. The Gurvan with a wild hair thought they could conquer Ciao territory. They were wrong. 9000 Ciao horsemen died while all 125,000 Gurvan were slain. At turn's end, King Quo Yu passed away.

GURVAN ANSHAN

Khurkon-Chon
DIPLOMACY: none

Sunto was rebuilt by the Gurvan horsemen. Then Shutson Khan went whacko and attacked the Ciao with his 125,000 cavalry. The Ciao and the Chekiang had awaited for such an attack from the Mongols. Now that Mongols have gone away, the Gurvan will do just fine. 350,000 Chinese cavalry, half of them heavy lancers, half javalancers and archers rushed to defend Chihhi. Shutson was defeated most ignobly and he lost all his troops. Yen revolted and killed the Gurvan goat Khan. Liaotung and Bandao also rebelled. What was left: Anshan, Parhee and Koguryo remained loyal to each other and their new Gurvan King, Khurkon-Chon.

The Pacific Rim

Merca: 10mhi, 10mi, 10mw

THE AMAGO SHOGUNATE

Tenno Kuzuyu, 82nd Emperor of Nihon, Descendent of Amaterasu
Amago Michikatsu, Boss of Shimane, Shogun of Japan
DIPLOMACY: Okinawa(nt), Hokkaido(ea), Satsunan(f)

The Amago sent their spies out to find out if the Chekiang Dragon had infiltrated them and to find out their leaders' loyalty. Kamokagi objected to this kind of scrutiny but he died from a sudden seizure.

THE EMPIRE OF THE STORM

Roots that grow Deep in the Sand, Storm King, Emperor of the Middle Kingdom
 DIPLOMACY: none

Everyone in the islands helped out the government. There was talk wondering if too much regulation could restrict productivity and free trade. Much of that is academic now.

THE AKETTA IMPERIUM

Sular, Sorcerer-King of the Aketta
 DIPLOMACY: Pechua(nt)

Geelong increased to 6 gold value and is a gleaming beacon of civility in a wild continent. Kalik trekked up the west coast but found both Tir-ar-Dha and Eha Rana too distant, too far away from Geelong to diplomacize.

THE NEW WORLD

The Grand Massif

Merca: 10mi

MERCAIN

Fleance
 DIPLOMACY: Mohawk(n)

The Mercain moved their capital to Duncan from Katherine to get closer to Mohawk. 20,000 clovers were shipped to Chowan. By diplomacy effort Mohawk no longer hated the Mercain and were granted their freedom. Land trade was stopped with Chowan, again.

THE CHOWAN SUPREMACY

Skor, Chief of Chowan
 DIPLOMACY: Creek(fa), Santee(f), Texas(ea)

Skor went up to Creek without a paddle. The Santee chief went to Caddo but was unable to diplomacize a region already friendly to someone else. Hata of Potawatomi even attacked him with 2000 braves. All the Santee men (1000) were killed but their chief got away and died of a spider bite in Choctaw. Ayoel grew to 4 GPv. Trade by sea with Mercain was wisely started.

Texas was attacked by the newly formed Mescalero tribe. 2000 Cheraw were present to defend the frontier region -and 10,000 Texas. The Mescalero had 12,500 armed men. It was evenly matched. Though Chowan force had the slight edge. After years of battle, the Mescalero retreated with only 1000 mercenaries left.

THE HOPEWELL CULTURE

Blackbear
 DIPLOMACY: Taposa(nt), Wenro(f), Chitimacha(a)

The Hopewell worked to expand their hold of the Mississippi Valley. There was diplomatic interference by the Chowan in Taposa but the agent was later chastised by the Potawatomi in a skirmish in Caddo.

LAKES WYOMING OF ILLINOIS

Hawkeys
 DIPLOMACY: Kansa(ea), Noquet(f)

Chicago was expanded. A port fortress was built in Quapaw, facing the Lower Great Snake.

THE OGALA NATION

Smiling Hawk
 DIPLOMACY: none

22,000 braves led by Smiling Hawk have gathered in Ogala. The buffalo have been very good to his roving nation.

The Rocky Sierra Cordillera

Merca: 15mi

MANITOWISH

White Rain
 DIPLOMACY: Pomo(hs, later pacified), Comox(nt), Tolowa(f), Patwin(c)

Warchild went to Esselin and Chumash and found that they refused to join the Maniowish so they were both forced to pay tribute by military demonstration. Warchild took his tattered force to Pomo who hated the Maniowish so much that they had to be pacified.

THE ASSOCIATION OF ACORN GROWERS OF NAPA

Merced, Chief of the Miwok
 DIPLOMACY: none

Two more regions were lost to the invading Maniowish (Chumash, Esselin and their cities too). Merced fled further south to Yuma. His nation is split in four pieces (Yuma, Washo, Klamath and Serrano).

THE POPOCLOTL KINGDOM

Tezozomoc II
 DIPLOMACY: Cora(fa), Tahue(a), Mogollon(a), Chiricaua(f), Concho(c)

The ally from Chiricaua was chased out of Mescalero with the rise of a new nation there. He stayed in Concho and Mogollon before dying of an old age.

MESCALERO

One Tree
 DIPLOMACY: Mescalero(h), Karankawa(nt)

One Tree established a kingdom in Mescalero and established contact with the Chowan. One Tree didn't like the Chowan so he sent his son Stonepeel to attack them and the Texans who dared to side with them. All 7500 Mescalero troops were killed in battle and most of the 5000 mercenaries hired were hurt as well. Stonepeel withdrew from battle, learning the power of native armies in regions with high resistance values.

OAXACA

Pichutzol
 DIPLOMACY: none

A trade fleet from Hopewell arrived at the Azteca port in Maya. Slowly, contact is being made with the distant peoples of the world.
